OUR CENTRE FIELDER.

COMMENCED HIS PROFESSIONAL CAREER OVER 7 YEARS AGO.

He Then Retired From the Diamond for Six Years-At One Time He Was a Pitcher.

Clifford Groves, the crack centre-fielder of the Virginia State League, was born in Cincinnati in 1829, and is therefore twenty-six years of age. In 1888 he played with the Logansport Club, of Indiana, which won the championship of the State. Many persons will be superised to be a contracted to the champions of the State.
